There is no interview for admittance into the course. However, all interested students who have completed DRM228H – Playwriting, 1 FCE from Drama Foundations with a CGPA of 2.7 are required to submit a portfolio to be assessed by the instructor, Djanet Sears.

2018 APPLICATION DATES

- Apply by March 10th 2018: https://drama-apply.chass.utoronto.ca/login
- Upload your DRM328H Portfolio by April 10th 2018.

2018/19 PORTFOLIO GUIDELINES

DRM328H1 F Applicants are required to submit two writing samples and a rationale to be assessed by the instructor, (TBA). These samples must consist of:

- Excerpts and/or selections of writing for theatre or performance (3 to 5 pages each), demonstrating a range of voice, style, and/or structure.
- A sample of poetry, prose fiction or non-fiction (max 3 pages) can be substituted for the second sample of theatre or performance writing if this better expresses the students' writing interests.

2. Students must also include a rationale (max 2 pages) that:

   - Briefly contextualizes the writing samples
   - Describes student's theatre and/or writing experience
   - Explains student's area of interest/research in terms of writing for theatre and performance - i.e. the kinds of ideas, models, situations, etc. they wish to explore.
   - Outlines (briefly) an idea the student hopes to develop over the length of the course.
