DRM302H1 Directing II
2017-18 Application Guidelines

DRM302H1 Directing II: A continuation of DRM202H1, concentrating on major concepts and artistic practice of directing in order to understand plays as a director. The course focuses on developing the analytical and aesthetic skill required for reading a text of quality and conceptualizing its performance. A major component will be the practical application of directing through exercises and scenes.

- Enrollment: up to 12 students
- Pre-requisites: Letter of Interest, DRM202H1*; Minimum CGPA of 2.7 and DRM100Y1/DRM101Y1/UNI102Y1
- Co or Pre-requisite: DRM220Y1/DRM230Y1 and DRM331H1
- The online application is due November 10, 2017.

*During this transitional year (2017/18), students who have completed a minimum of 8 FCE will be eligible to apply for DRM302H1 Directing II without having completed DRM202H1 if you can exhibit some background knowledge and interest in directing; AND have already completed one of the following: DRM100Y1, DRM101Y1 or UNI102Y1.
