Field School in Medieval Theatre Studies
12 August to 29 August 2018
Dan School of Drama and Music, Queen’s University

Undergraduate students have the opportunity to participate in an eighteen-day immersive experience during England’s Medieval Festival at Herstmonceux Castle, the home of the Bader International Study Centre. Students will perform in the Medieval Festival at the Castle, which is Britain’s largest and most magnificent celebration of the colourful Middle Ages. Be sure to visit the website at www.englandsmedievalfestival.com

The field school is based at the East Sussex campus of Queen’s University, the Bader International Study Centre. The BISC is located in Herstmonceux Castle, an hour and 20 minutes by train south of London. The ancient castle sits on 600 acres of parkland with extensive gardens and trails. In addition, students can easily participate in independent travel throughout Europe before or after the program.

Plan of Study
DRAM271/3.0 – Medieval Dramatic Literature
DRAM273/3.0 – Medieval Dramatic Performance
Prerequisite: DRAM100 or permission of the School

Students will also attend performances at Michelham Priory, Sussex, by the Rude Mechanicals and at The Globe Theatre in London.

Instruction at the Castle will begin on 12 August. The Field School will conclude on 29 August at the end of England’s Medieval Festival. The total cost for the program is $3483 CAD. This includes tuition for 2 courses/6 units, residence and meals while at the Castle, field study trips, entrance fees, and scheduled shuttle service to and from the airport at the beginning and end of the Field School. Students are responsible for their own transportation to and from the UK, health and travel insurance, visas (if applicable) and personal spending money.
